Say a word
that doesn't cinder
its all burning
everyone's still cold
i see whats happening
the truth is twisted
everyone's older
then the story changes
its gotta change
where does it come from nobody knows
I have found it without lifting a finger words always seem to turn everyones feelings
I have had enough
We have had enough of.
Sunshine
Shine on me.

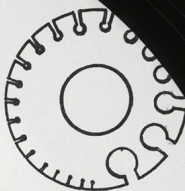

it comes around
follow your town Slide it on
make sure it fits
you use it well
then you discard it
you cut it deep
you cut him deep.

moving slowly
Carving...
just like salt
on an open
wound.
