FRIDAY MAY 14 At Spectrum

Everyone involved in the show at Hoffman Estates H.S. offers their sincere apologies for the actions taken by the school officials and the police department on that night. The bands that played and the people that organized the show were not aware that such ignorance and stupidity would be forced upon us. If you were manhandled or abused in any way, be sure to speak up and let those responsible know that you will not be treated in such a rude and inconsiderate fashion ever again.....

Our bodies contain the information, the knowledge of the entire evolution. Cut from our roots, separated from each other, longing. Sweat covered bodies fill the dancefloor. The uprising body breaks through the thin layers called consciousness and culture. For awhile we lose control, catching a glimpse of the unspeakable. A sense of harmony, of freedom. Let's do something with this and re-establish the connection. It is worth the struggle. It is the challenge, the only thing we've really got. Let's not waste our time, but explore and enjoy, experience and learn.....

Proceeds from this wonderful show will benefit the Disabled Committee of Schaumburg Township!

19-year-old charged with reckless conduct

DES PLAINES — A 19-year-old man was arrested early Friday morning after he and another man were accused of purposefully knocking down several construction barricades with their car near Third and Greenview avenues. James Kolinski, 611 S. Parsons Ave., was charged with reckless conduct and possession of cannabis, police said. Police said he also was carrying a bag of marijuana when he was arrested. Kolinski and the other man were followed to his home by a resident who saw the car knock over the barricades, reports indicated. The resident then flagged down police, who arrested Kolinski, police said. The other man was not in the car, reports indicated, and Kolinski declined to name him.

David Yow, The Jesus Lizard

"I play Scrabble as often as possible, as does our European tour manager. We're both pretty good and serious about the game. During a visit to Chicago, said tour manager was having his ass thrashed by me six games out of seven. He was winning the seventh game, when I took the last of the tiles from the bag and set them on my rack. Without even arranging them, they spelled the word N-I-R-V-A-N-A. I put the word on a triple-word score with the N completing Z-O-O-N (zoon is the whole product of a fertilized egg), giving me 97 points for the word and winning the game."

Peoria will never be the same.
