JERKWATER * EARTH EIGHTEEN * HERBAL FLESH TEA * LUCID

With a 7" out now on Dyslexic Records and a full length release due later this summer, Chicago's JERKWATER headline this Wednesday night showcase. Together for less than two years they combine the elements of Seaweed, Fugazi, Jawbreaker, and Face To Face. Featuring ex-members of the Meatmen, Samiam, and Chemlab - Giant Recording Artist EARTH EIGHTEEN. From Washington D.C., they add to this bill "heavy, pulsing, lava flow of hazy, post-punk pop rock music, all encompassing in its strength and mesmerize in its intensity" (B-Side). Rounding things off is the punk/jazz fusion of HERBAL FLESH TEA, who draw comparisons to Firehose and The Minutemen, and LUCID - who define their music as experimental with elements of indie rock and punk.

Wednesday, May 10

RADIAL SPANGLE * ST. JOHNNY * ASTROBOY

With a Pavement/Pixies/Mercury Rev flavor, Oklahoma's RADIAL SPANGLE are on top of this Wednesday bill. One critic describes their sound as "Organic, raucous and tender; humanely personal musings discreetly soaked in pop genius that never drowns the groups wavelength". Once upon a time it was Dixieland v. Be-Bop, then Cool v. Hard, but the "school" that Geffen Records ST. JOHNNY comes from swerves off the beaten path like a souped-up '73 Nova hugging the raw road. Off kilter rock with a hard edge. Opening up is Chicago's ASTROBOY.

Wednesday, May 17

THE SKY CORVAIR * THUSH HERMIT * C-CLAMP

From Chicago, THE SKY CORVAIR mix it up to express feelings of tenderness and fury. With a release due out soon on Gun Records, this four piece offers both the loud & fast ear piercing rock-n-roll and quiet, often lullaby styled ballads. From Canada, THUSH HERMIT. Pure pop melodies ala' Sloan, best describes this young band. With all members still in their teens, they have released two singles on the Genius label. Starting things off is the tri-city, slowburn sounds of C-CLAMP whose slow dreamy guitar and vocal sound is music that makes you want to wait.

Wednesday, May 24:

PICKLE * INTERNATIONAL HOODWINK * RUSTY

"Noisy, minimalist constructions with a forget me not hook buried inside" is how one local critic describes the sound of PICKLE. With a full length due out on the local label Southern Records, they headline this Wednesday night. Returning to Metro again with their somewhat bizarre and twisted rock noise - INTERNATIONAL HOODWINK. Entrenched deep in the local indie/punk scene, these guys cross the sounds of Fugazi with classic rock. Contrary to what their name might connote, Canada's RUSTY rumble and roll like a well-oiled machine. They open up this show with their punk styled rock-n-roll.

JEFF BUCKLEY * SOUL COUGHING

"I'll probably play live till the day I die". - Jeff Buckley

For this we can all be guaranteed amazing live shows for quite some time. Columbia recording artist JEFF BUCKLEY brings his unbelievably emotional and powerful act to Metro this month. Expect a dynamic performance putting you in a musical blender and whizzing you about with wailing, moaning, melodic chords, punching rock noise, acoustic melodies and passion delivered with every note. Unique in his deliverance, Buckley sings at times with a growl, other times with a supernatural falsetto. Backed by a talented band, Jeff Buckley will leave you feeling as though you had just shared with him his innermost secrets. Starting things out are Warner Brothers recording artists, SOUL COUGHING from New York. Big fat gritty grooves are what these boys deliver. Known for their stunning live shows, Soul Coughing whip up a blend of eccentric sounds and deep grooves.

Saturday, May 13 (Late show):

CATCH 22 * STRANGER THINGS * MARBLE KIND

Since forming in February of 1993, CATCH 22 have perfected their unique sound of soul driven guitars, unorthodox bass grooves, aggressive beats and profound lyrics. This five piece has been playing key Chicago venues for some time leaving their audiences consumed with the enthusiasm driven out in their shows. STRANGER THINGS push out brilliant guitar pop tunes much in the vein of Dinosaur Jr., Buffalo Tom and Shudder To Think. Their special brand of pop gives you songs you won't soon forget! Opening up is MARBLE KIND with their not to miss flamboyant rock sound with influences ala The Flaming Lips.
